Rules:

- 1) Choose your favorite Outdoor Cooking dish (traditional or new) to show off to the Scouts: Simple is best!
- 2) Make it and bring the entire dish to the Roundtable at 6:45** (there will be no cooking at the church, just bring the finished dish so we can see what it is supposed to look like and how much the recipe makes).
- 3) Bring 25 copies of your recipe*, or email it to Imcgraw@sc.rr.com and I will make the copies for you.
- 4) Bring other Scouters or older Scouts to help with the judging and eating
- 5) And then Help Judge the Other Dishes!

No limit to the number of entries per unit, but only one entry per Scouter/Scout please.

*Recipes must have full directions and your name and unit number on them.

All recipes will be compiled onto a CD with bonus material and given to all cooks and April Roundtable Attendees for FREE.

**entries in the door after 7:15 will be happily consumed and praised, but not eligible for the neat prizes.

If you think that you will be bringing a dish, please email or call Lorie McGraw or Tom McGrath. We need to know how many tables to set up
